

Welcome to our Fourth CE program of 2020

Dr. Mark Malterud

'Restorative Centric, You Need To Start Somewhere' and
'Super Generalist: The Pathway to Independence and fulfillment'

Wednesday, December 9, 2020
Restorative Centric:

Course Objective: Explore the use of an anterior midpoint stop splint as a starting point to deciding what directions to take a restorative case.

Learning Objectives:

- Understanding of joint anatomy and how the excess muscle activity can trigger tension headaches and migrainous activities

- Understanding a starting reproducible jaw position
- Understand that there is a relationship between migrainous activity and nocturnal parafunctional activity and that this is all an extension of sleep disorders
- Fabricate an immediate in office AMPS & how to adjust it properly

SuperGeneralist:

Explore the avenues available to expand dental school training beyond the limits you may feel that you as a general dentist are restricted to.

Learning Objectives:

- Understanding of what procedures they may choose to perform for their patients
- How to make the office more profitable
- Breaking down any preconceived ideas of limitations the participants may have and instill the confidence to expand their platter of services to help more of their patients.

Dr. Malterud is a 1983 graduate of the University of Minnesota School of Dentistry and practices General and Family dentistry in St. Paul along with being an adjunct faculty member of the University of Minnesota Continuing Dental Education Department. Dr. Malterud's practice focuses on comprehensive cosmetic dentistry incorporating Minimally Invasive Dental Procedures. to various local and national dental societies and study club groups. As an early user of the NTI splint he has had an opportunity to help with creating refinements for the designs and uses of the splint. Dr. Malterud also consults with various other dental manufacturers on product development and testing and is a proud member of Catalyst Education.
